STATEMENT OF NEED

What does this concept accomplish and why is it necessary? This policy was originally an OUS policy so "University" and "University of Oregon" was substituted for "Institution." The minimum standards expressed are consistent with accreditation standards and provide a legitimate basis for responding to state-level attempts to legislate UO standards.

Credit for College Courses Taught in High Schools ~~or Through Distance Education~~

Enactment & Revision History:

Became a University of Oregon policy by operation of law on July 1, 2014.

Former OUS Internal Management Directive 2.030.

Policy:

~~Each institution~~ The University may offer college-level courses taught for credit in high schools ~~or through distance education~~ to serve high school students.

1. These course offerings shall be at the postsecondary level and in addition to high school-level courses required for graduation. When courses are taught at the high schools, course materials shall be the same as, or equivalent to, those of the ~~institution awarding the credit~~ Institution University of Oregon, as determined by the faculty through institutional and departmental curricular review processes.
2. Student eligibility for ~~college~~ university-level credit courses will be mutually determined by the ~~sponsoring institution~~ University and the high school.
3. The ~~sponsoring institution~~ University will determine the registration processes and tuition.
4. Earned credits and grades will be transcribed by the ~~sponsoring institution~~ University.
5. High school teachers of college courses shall possess comparable qualifications to instructors of the disciplines ~~in the sponsoring institution~~ at the University, and shall be approved by the ~~sponsoring institution's~~ University's departments. ~~College-University~~ teachers may also teach college courses ~~for to~~ high school students.
6. University policies for teaching/course evaluation ~~practices shall be comparable to the practices of the sponsoring institution's department.~~ will be followed.

Commented [KJF1]: Do we want UO control over who decides equivalency? "When courses are taught at the high schools, course materials shall be the same as, or equivalent to, those of the institution. Course materials proposed as equivalent shall be approved by the University's departments."
